The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1316 (Senate Bill No. 246), as follows:

An Act defining the powers of the courts of quarter sessions the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the County Court of Allegheny County with respect to the care guidance control trial placement and commitment of deliquent dependent and neglected children under sixteen years of age and of persons over sixteen years of age contributing to or encouraging the deliquency neglect and dependency of children and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto

Whereas The welfare of the Commonwealth demands that children should be guarded from association and contact with crime and criminals and the ordinary process of the criminal law does not provide for such care guidance and control as are essential to children in the formative period of life and

Whereas Experience has shown that children lacking proper parental care or guardianship are led into courses of life which may render them liable to the penalties of the criminal law and that the real interests of such children require that they be not incarcerated in jails and penitentiaries as members of the criminal class but be subjected to wise care guidance and control so that evil tendencies may be checked and better instincts be strengthened and

Whereas To these ends it is important that the powers of the courts with respect to the care guidance and control over delinquent neglected and dependent children should be clearly distinguished from those exercised in the ordinary administration of the criminal law therefore

Section 1 DEFINITIONS Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

An Act to protect the lives and secure the safety and health of the people by making it unlawful to evict persons from dwellings under certain conditions

WHEREAS All power is inherent in the people and all free governments are founded on their authority and instituted for their peace safety and happiness and

WHEREAS The paramount duty of every government is to protect the lives and insure the health and safety of its citizens and

WHEREAS The proper protection of the lives of its citizens and the preservation of their health and safety demands not only food and clothing but proper and adequate shelter and

WHEREAS The present economic depression by causing unemployment loss of income and creating inability on the part of tenants and home owners to pay rent or installments of principal and interest on liens against their homes and places of shelter has resulted in widespread eviction proceedings against tenants and former home owners throughout the State who now have no adequate shelter by reason thereof and

WHEREAS It is for the ultimate benefit and safety of the Commonwealth that shelter be afforded to such unfortunate citizens to safeguard their health and thus to preserve the peace and well-being of the Commonwealth and

WHEREAS The General Assembly finds as a fact that existing economic conditions throughout the State necessitate the exercise of the police power for the protection of the health and safety of the people therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth no person who occupies any property used by him and his family as a dwelling and who because of involuntary unemployment or other involuntary conditions arising out of economic depression is unable to pay rent interest or principal of any lien shall hereafter be evicted therefrom or disposses thereof by reason of any writ of any kind issued by any court magistrate or person whatsoever

Section 2 Before any distress for rent or final writ of possession to evict any individual who as owner lessee or occupant under an agreement of sale or otherwise lawfully occupies real property in this Commonwealth used by him as a dwelling shall be served by any sheriff constable or other officer or individual having the legal right to serve such writ a notice in writing of the intention to distrain or to serve such writ shall be given to such individual lawfully in possession as owner lessee occupant under agreement of sale or otherwise at least five days prior to the actual levy or service of the writ whereupon within said period of five days the individual receiving such notice may petition the court of common pleas of the county in which the premises are located setting forth that because of his inability to secure employment he is unable to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff issuing the distress or writ of possession to evict and praying the court to enjoin said levy or writ until such time as it may deem reasonable and just under all the circumstances

Section 3 The several courts of common pleas are hereby empowered to hear all petitions made under section two of this act and to pass upon all questions of the petitioner's ability or inability to secure employment and of his inability to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff about to issue the distress or writ of possession to evict and in such cases as the courts may deem proper they may grant injunctions against such levy or writ of possession to evict for such period or periods of time as may seem reasonable and just to the court under all the circumstances and it may continue such injunction from time to time as in the opinion of the court may be necessary and just

Section 4 Any sheriff constable or other officer or person who shall evict or remove or attempt to evict or remove any person or persons or any property belonging to any person in possession of any property theretofore used as a dwelling from such property contrary to the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not more than one thousand dollars or suffer imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court

Section 5 In those cases in which a court shall determine that distress or eviction proceedings shall be enjoined for a stated time the court may at the same time suspend payment by the owner of the dwelling who is not in possession thereof of the interest on any lien mortgage or other encumbrance on the said dwelling for the said stated time and such owner shall also by decree of court be released from all liability for any taxes whatever accruing against the said dwelling during said stated time

Section 6 The powers hereby conferred upon the courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth shall terminate six months after the effective date of this act but the Governor may extend the period of this act by proclamation for an additional period not exceeding two years

Section 7 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 8 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1256, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Historical Commission for the maintenance and development of the Drake Well Memorial Park

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Pennsylvania Historical Commission for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three for the purpose of maintaining and developing the Drake Well Memorial Park as a memorial park

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 925, as follows:

An Act to provide for the investigation and study of wages of women and minors employed in trade and industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and for the determination and establishment of minimum fair wage standards for such workers and for the purpose of preventing unfair and oppressive exploitation of such workers and for other purposes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the employment of women and minors in trade and industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at wages unreasonably low and not fairly commensurate with the value of the services rendered is a matter of grave and vital public concern Many women and minors employed for gain in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are not as a class upon a level of equality in bargaining with their employers in regard to minimum fair wage standards and "freedom of contract" as applied to their relations with their employers is illusory Since a very large percentage of such workers are obliged from their week to week wages to support themselves and others who are dependnt upon them in whole or in part they are by reason of their necessitous circumstances forced to accept whatever wages are offered them Judged by any reasonable standard wages are in many cases fixed by chance and caprice and the wages accepted are often found to bear no relation to the fair value of the service rendered Women and minors employed for gain are peculiarly subject to the overreaching of inefficient harsh or ignorant employers and under unregulated competition where no adequate machinery exists for the effective regulation and maintenance of minimum fair wage standards the standards such as exist tend to be set by the least conscionable employers In the absence of any effective minimum fair wage rates for women and minors the constant lowering of wages by unscrupulous employers constitutes a serious form of unfair competition against other employers reduces the purchasing power of the workers and threatens the stability of industry The evils of oppressive unreasonable and unfair wages as they affect women and minors employed in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are such as to render imperative the exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth for the protection of industry and of the women and minors employed therein and of the public interest of the community at large in their health and wellbeing and in the prevention of the deterioration of the race In the considered judgment of the legislature this act in all its parts is constitutional

a "Secretary" shall mean the Secretary of Labor and Industry

b "Directors" shall mean the directors or any deputy director of the minimum wage division which shall be set up as a separate division in the Department of Labor and Industry by the Secretary with a director in charge and with such deputy directors and other assistants and employes as the Secretary may deem desirable

c The Secretary or the director shall present to a wage board promptly upon its organization all the evidence and information in the possession of the Secretary or director relating to the wages of women and minor workers in the occupation or occupations for which the wage board was appointed and all other information which the Secretary or the director deems relevant to the establishment of a minimum fair wage for such women and minors and shall cause to be brought before the committee any witnesses whom the Secretary or the director deems material A wage board may summon other witnesses or call upon the Secretary or the director furnish additional information to aid it in its deliberations

All witnesses subpoenaed by the wage board shall be paid the fees and mileage fixed by law in civil cases In cases of failure on the part of any person to conply with any subpoena of the wage board or upon the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may lawfully be interrogated before any wage board it shall be the duty of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County on the application of a member of the wage board to compel obedience in the same manner that such obedience would be compelled by contempt proceedings or otherwise in a proceeding pending before said court

d Within sixty days of its organization a wage board shall submit a report including its recommendations as to minimum fair wage standards for the women or minors in the occupation or occupations the wage standards of which the wage board was appointed to investigate if its report is not submitted within such time the Secretary may constitute a new wage board e A wage board may recommend minimum fair wage rates varying with localities if in the judgment of the wage board conditions make such local differentiation proper and do not effect an unreasonable discrimination against any locality

f A wage board may recommend a suitable scale of rates for learners and apprentices in any occupation or occupations which scale of learners' and apprentices' rates may be less than the regular minimum fair wage rates recommended for experienced women or minor workers in such occupation or occupations

Section 7 A report from a wage board shall be submitted to the Secretary who shall within 10 days confer with the director and accept or reject such report If the report is rejected the Secretary shall resubmit the matter to the same wage board or to a new wage board with a statement of the reasons for the resubmission If the report is accepted it shall be published together with such proposed administrative regulations as the Secretary after conferring with the director may deem appropriate to implement the report of the wage board and to safeguard the minimum fair wage standards to be established and notice shall be given of a public hearing to be held by the Secretary or the director not sooner than fifteen nor more than thirty days after such publication at which all persons in favor of or opposed to the recommendations contained in such report or in such proposed regulations may be heard

Section 8 Within ten days after such hearing the Secretary shall confer with the director and approve or disapprove the report of the wage board If the report is disapproved the Secretary may resubmit the matter to the same wage board or to a new wage board If the report is approved the Secretary shall make a directory order which shall define minimum fair wage rates in the occupation or occupations as recommended in the report of the wage board and which shall include such proposed administrative regulations as the Secretary may deem appropriate to implement the report of the wage board and to safeguard the minimum fair wage standards established Such administrative regulations may include among other things regulations defining and governing learners and apprentices their rates number proportion or length of service piece rates or their relations to time rates overtime or part-time rates bonuses or special pay for special or extra work deductions for board lodging apparel or other items or services supplied by the employer and other special conditions or circumstances and in view of the diversities and complexities of different occupations and the dangers of evasion and nullification the Secretary may provide in such regulations without departing from the basic minimum rates recommended by the wage board such modifications or reductions of or addition to such rates in or for such special cases or classes of cases as those herein enumerated as the Secretary may find appropriate to safeguard the basic minimum rates established

Section 9 For any occupation for which minimum fair wage rates have been established the Secretary or the director may cause to be issued to a woman or minor including a learner or apprentice whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury a special license authorizing empolyment at such wages less than such minimum fair wage rates and for such period of time as shall be fixed by the Secretary or the director and stated in the license

Section 10 If the Secretary or the director or any authorized representatives of the director has reason to believe that any employer is not observing the provisions of any order made by him under Section eight of this Act the Secretary or the director may on fifteen days notice summon such employer to appear before the Secretary or the director to show cause why the name of such employer should not be published as having failed to observe the provisions of such order After such hearing and the finding by the Secretary or the director of nonobservance the Secretary may cause to be published in a newspaper or newspapers circulating within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or in such other manner as the Secretary may deem appropriate the name of any such employer or employers as having failed in the respects stated to observe the provisions of the directory order of the Secretary Neither the Secretary nor any authorized representative of the Secretary nor any newspaper publisher proprietor editor nor employe thereof shall be liable to an action for damages for publishing the name of any employer as provided for in this Act unless guilty of some wilful misrepresentation

Section 11 If at any time after a directory minimum fair wage order has been in effect for nine months the Secretary is of the opinion after conferring with the director that the persistent nonobservance of such order by one or more employers is a threat to the maintenance of fair minimum wage standards in any occupation or occupations the Secretary or the director may give notice of the intention of the Secretary to make such order mandatory and of a public hearing to be held not sooner than fifteen nor more than 30 days after such publication at which all persons in favor of or opposed to a mandatory order may be heard by the Secretary or the director After such hearing the Secretary if he adheres to his opinion may make the previous directory order or any part thereof mandatory and so publish it

Section 12 At any time after a minimum fair wage order has been in effect for one year or more whether during such period it has been directory or mandatory the Secretary may on his own motion after conferring with the director and shall on petition of fifty or more residents of the Commonwealth reconsider the minimum fair wage rates set therein and reconvene the same wage board or appoint a new wage board to recommend whether or not the rate or rates contained in such order should be modified The report of such wage board shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in Sections seven and eight of this Act provided that if the order under reconsideration has theretofore been made mandatory in whole or in part by the Secretary under Section eleven then the Secretary in making any new order or confirming any old order shall have power to declare to what extent such be directory and to what extent mandatory

Section 13 The Secretary may at any time and from time to time after conference with the director propose such modifications of or additions to any administrative regulations included in any directory or mandatory order of the Secretary without reference to a wage board as the Secretary may deem appropriate to effectuate the purposes of the Act provided such proposed modification or additions could legally have been included in the original order and notice shall be given of a public hearing to be held by the Secretary or director not less than fifteen days after such publication at which all persons in favor of or opposed to such proposed modifications or additions may be heard After such hearing the Secretary may make an order putting into effect such proposed modifications of or additions to the administrative regulations as he deems appropriate and if the order of which the administrative regulations form a part has theretofore been made mandatory in whole or in part by the Secretary under Section eleven then the Secretary in making any new order shall have the power to declare to what extent such order shall be directory and to what extent mandatory

Section 14 All questions of fact arising under this Act except as otherwise provided shall be decided by the Secretary or the director and there shall be no appeal from the decision of the Secretary or the director on any such question of fact but there shall be a right of review by the courts from any ruling or holding on a question of law included or embodied in any decision or order of the Secretary or the director

Section 15 Every employer of women and minor workers shall keep a true and accurate record of the hours worked by each and the wages paid by him to each and shall furnish to the Secretary or the director or the authorized representative of the director upon demand a sworn statement of the same Such records shall be open to inspection by the Secretary or the director or any athorized representative of the director at any reasonable time Every employer subject to a minimum fair wage order whether directory or mandatory shall keep a copy of such order posted in a conspicious place in every room in which women or minors are employed Employers shall be furnished copies of orders on request without charge

Section 16 (a) Any employer and his agent or the officer or agent of any corporation who discharges or in any other manner discriminates against any employe because such employe has served or is about to serve on a wage board or has testified or is about to testify before any wage board or in any other investigation or proceeding under or related to this Act or because such employer believes that said employe may serve on any wage board or may testify before any wage board or in any investigation or proceeding under this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 374

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 13, 1933

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 374, Printer's No. 472, entitled "An act to authorize the purchase by the Commonwealth of historical works relative to the services of Pennsylvania volunteers."

This bill would authorize purchases by the Commonwealth of four hundred copies of a history of the One Hundred and Second (old thirteenth) Regiment Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Infantry (Washington Infantry of Pittsburgh, Incorporated), when published, at $2.50 a copy to be distributed to college libraries, public libraries and historical societies in Pennsylvania and to the Library of Congress and the State library of each state and territory. An appropriation of $1,000 for purchasing of the books is provided.

Purchase of articles of any kind by the Commonwealth for the purpose of distribution to private institutions and societies would be of doubtful propriety under any circumstances. However, the appropriation provided in this act was not included in the budget, and the condition of the State revenue does not warrant the approval of this bill at this time.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. DWYER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2109, Printer's No. 511, from page 67 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Witkin.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2109, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 34), entitled "An act concerning alcoholic liquors; prohibiting the manufacture, advertising, furnishing, traffic in, and possession of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, and articles and substances designed or intended for use in the manufacture thereof; defining intoxicating liquor; providing for penalties, forfeitures, and the abatement of nuisances; and repealing existing alcoholic liquor laws and alcoholic liquor license laws"; defining intoxicating liquor.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 13, by inserting after the word "any" the following: "malt, brewed, vinous or distilled."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1504, Printer's No. 907, from page 69 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Blumberg.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1504, entitled:

An Act to amend the title, section ten, and sections two hundred and two hundred and two, as amended, of the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 762), entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth, except in counties of the first and second class: and revising, amending, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," extending the provisions of said act to counties of the first and second classes.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 3, page 4, line 9 by placing a heavy-faced bracket after the word "act" thus "]."

Amend section 3, page 4, line 10 by removing the strike-out bracket after the word "Allegheny."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1731, as follows:

An Act to further amend clause (a) of section four and clause (a) of section five of the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computing the vote at all elections including primaries in any county city borough or township of the Commonwealth at the option of the electors thereof prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption requirements examination purchase installation preparation custody and demonstration of use of voting machines providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines prescribing the qualifications number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts and the consolidation of election districts providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That clause (a) of section four of the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computing the vote at all elections including primaries in any county city borough or township of the Commonwealth at the option of the electors thereof prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption requirements examination purchase installation preparation custody and demonstration of use of voting machines providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines prescribing the qualifications number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts and the consolidation of election districts providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act" as amended by the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred eighty-five) is hereby further amended to read as follows

(a) If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question shall vote in the affirmative the county commissioners of the said county shall purchase for each election district of such county city borough or township one or more voting machines of a kind or kinds approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and of sufficient capacity to accommodate the names of a reasonable number of candidates for all public and party offices which under the provisions of existing laws and party rules are likely to be voted for at any future election and shall notify the Secretary of the Commonwealth in writing that they have done so The county commissioners shall provide machines in good working order and shall preserve and keep them in repair Voting machine of different kinds may be used for different districts in the same county city borough or township In each election district other than in cities of the first and second classes in which voting machines are used the county commissioners may provide one voting machine for each five hundred registered voters or fraction thereof therein and shall provide one voting machine for each six hundred registered voters or fraction thereof therein In election districts in cities of the first and second classes in which voting machines are used the county commissioners shall provide one voting machine for each three hundred and fifty registered voters or fraction thereof

Section 2 That clause (a) of section five of said act as amended by the said act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred eighty-five) is hereby further amended to read as follows

(a) The courts of quarter sessions may upon petition redivide wards of cities or boroughs where voting machines are adopted into election districts of compact and contiguous territory or shall consolidate election districts therein into new districts each having [five] six hundred and not less than three hundred and fifty registered voters as nearly as may be except that districts having less than three hundred and fifty registered voters may be created whenever the court shall be of opinion that the convenience of the voters and the public interests will be promoted thereby

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 141, Printer's No. 492, from page 68 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Hutton,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 141, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and three, section four as amended, sections seven and eight, and section nine as amended of the act, approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1780), entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court, the judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County," by reducing the salaries of judges.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain to the House, whether or not under the provisions of this bill judges elected in 1934 will receive less than those judges elected in 1932 receive?

Mr. HUTTON. In my opinion, Mr. Speaker, they would.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell the House whether or not a lawyer elected to become a judge is permitted to practice law?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman repeat his question?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Franklin tell the House whether or not a lawyer elected to the bench is permitted to practice law?

Mr. HUTTON. In my opinion, he is not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, a judge can only receive for his compensation and for his living the salary that he receives as a judge?

Mr. HUTTON. I think that is a self-evident proposition, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose the passage of this bill.

I believe that this bill is intended to be an economic measure. I am a believer in economy. I have voted for every measure in this House that has promoted economy, but I do not think that this bill however proper the motives of the sponsor, is proper legislation.

I feel that a lawyer becoming a judge has no right to practice law. The sponsor of the bill has so told you, and it is common knowledge that he must confine himself to the salary that he receives.

It seems to me that a judge elected to the bench should be properly compensated. It is a common fact that many of the judges receive less than the average successful lawyer. It is also a common fact that it is difficult, very difficult, to induce a lawyer of the first rank to become a judge for the reason that the salary is inadequate.

A judge has great jurisdiction over the life and liberty of our citizens and I feel that we should pick the best possible available material in the legal profession. I think that this bill will make it more difficult to get a lawyer to accept a judgeship, especially a lawyer of the first rank.

In addition, you will have this position, a judge who has been elected two years ago will receive less than a judge who, though having served two or three terms, will now receive less than his associate judges.

I do not think this is economy, I do not think it is a proper measure, and I think it ought to be voted down.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just have this to say in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, that despite what he has to say I feel that there are still a lot of patriotic lawyers who will immolate themselves . common knowledge that he must confine himself to the salary that is designated in this bill.

This bill puts the salaries of the judges back to what they were prior to the salary act of 1929.

It is true that it is an economy measure, and I ask you to vote in the affirmative.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, in the event that this bill passes and becomes a law, I arise to inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia, whether or not he would accept the position of judge at the reduced salary?

Mr. TAHL. I do not think that question is relevant, Mr Speaker, although I can assure the gentleman from Philadelphia that under the law a man elected under this bill would have to take the reduced salary.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, that provision would apply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, in the event that he was elected.

Mr. TAHL. I cannot hear the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman repeat his question?

Mr. LONG. I understand, Mr. Speaker, that in the event that this bill does become a law that the gentleman is willing to accept a judgeship at the reduced salary?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I want to say—will the gentleman repeat the question. I did not hear the question, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia be willing to retire to the rear of the House and talk to me privately and thus complete the conversation?

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with all due respect to my brilliant colleague, Mr. Hutton, and with all due deference to the facetiousness that has just happened, this is really and truly a serious matter for the members of this House, representing the great State of Pennsylvania, to consider.

I am not an attorney, and I feel that time has written her mark so indelibly on me that there is very small chance that I will ever take up the study of law, and become a competitor in that profession against Mr. Tahl and Mr. Long, but since we have had the long and the short argument, let us look at the thing seriously, as to what it means.

I have been connected with the courts of Philadelphia, and I think that the judiciary of Philadelphia, taken as a whole and as at present constituted, needs no one in this House, in Philadelphia, or any place else in the State or in the Nation to hold a brief for them, or to be an advocate of their cause, but there are certain serious considerations that seriously thinking men, that make the laws in this assembly and others like them throughout the country, that ought to make them study, pause and consider.

First of all, the State of Pennsylvania is no mean State. It is the second in the Nation, but strange as it may seem the State of New Jersey pay their judges more money than the State of Pennsylvania. The State of New York pays as high to some of its judges as twenty-five thousand dollars a year.

In many of the States of the Union, outside of Pennsylvania, the second ranking State in wealth and population, judges are permitted to practice law.

That privilege is not extended under the law of this State. During the time of new money, during the time of flush times, the judges were not the beneficiaries of any increase and they do not compare in salary either with New York or New Jersey. Now, it is plainly a matter of dollars and cents in comparison to two of our neighboring States.

There is to my mind, a layman, something that is much more serious. I am absolutely opposed to the Legislature for the trifling amount of money involved to have anything serious to say, to lay hands on the courts of our State, who are the bulwarks of our civilization, who are the very corner stones of order and democracy in this land. I think it is a dangerous precedent. If time would permit, to my mind, which is not as active as most lawyers, because of their being disciplined and trained, I could go all the way back to the foundation of this Nation, to Hamilton himself who put the finger of condemnation on a law making body having anything to do with the reduction of the compensation of the judiciary. This is really, my friends, more than mere facetiousness. The judges of this State are not paid near the money that they are worth; men that aspire to the office and are elected, many of them give up lucrative practices, and spend the best years of their lives, let me say, from thirty to thirty-five or forty and fifty years on the bench, I think, my friends, for the very little money that the proponents of this bill or any of its proponents on this floor, for the measly amount of money that would be saved, I think it is a very dangerous procedure for this Legislature to point their finger at the courts of this land, of this great State, and put them back to the salaries that they had before 1929. According to their training, according to the duties that they perform, according to the duties they owe to the community, according to the restriction that they are not allowed to practice law, according to the fact that they are men set apart, and I believe there are only about one hundred and twenty-seven judges in the State, I believe it is picayune, I think it is notoriously small for this great Commonwealth, teeming with wealth, to turn in this hour of emergency, and I am for economy; I voted to reduce the salaries of the members of this House, but I am not in favor of this law making body having anything to do with the judges and the courts of our State. They stand between you and any attack that may be made upon our civilization, on our present society as constituted.

I ask you, my friends, in the name of the great tradition, of the brilliant men that shine down through the corridors of time, that stood and graced and dignified and made history on the bench of this great State, I ask you in the name of the great departed and I ask you in the name of the great and grand galaxy of men that have set the precedent that this Legislature will not go on record to reduce the salaries of the judges of this State, that you selected and to whom you can point with pride for their erudition, their training, their accomplishments, their education, their judgment and their fairness, I ask you that you do not apply the same yardstick of economy in reducing their salaries as you would to the ordinary janitor or to the ordinary legislator that happens to be elected to this body.

I ask you, my friends, to cast your votes against this measure and to do justice to yourselves and to the Keystone State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell us how much money during the next biennium this bill, if enacted into law, would save the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I am not informed on that.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Franklin agrees with me that the provisions of this bill only apply to the judges that would be elected at the next election in November?

Mr. HUTTON. Quite so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Franklin further agrees with me that if this bill be enacted into law there would be a set of judges, who would receive the lesser salary as provided in this bill than those who were elected at the last election, who would receive a greater salary as now the law calls for.

Mr. HUTTON. That is true, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise at this time to point out to you briefly what has been so ably stated to you by my colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. Bennett. May I just have a word or two?

I have voted on every economy measure before this House in the affirmative, and I take it that we have a right to distinguish between other economy measures that have been voted upon and this particular economy measure that is to be voted upon.

It was my privilege and honor in 1929 to be the foster father of the bill wherein the salary of the judges was raised. I stated then and I say now that we ought to attract to the bench of our Commonwealth the ablest, the keenest and the best lawyers in our Commonwealth.

You may argue, and may argue correctly, that no matter how small the salary of a judge may be, there will be many candidates for the office. With that I am in accord, but members of this House, this is not the measure nor the means by which we should go into a subject of so great importance. Men who are elected to the bench must live according to certain standards. You may say that they must economize, and I say you are right but there are certain standards of living that a judge ought to be able to live up to. The salaries of the judges of Pennsylvania are by comparison less than any other State of its size and by far in a great number of the communities less than the judges in States not of its size. It has been pointed out to you that in New York and New Jersey, our neighboring States, the judges are paid greater salaries.

The amount of money that this bill will save this Commonwealth during the biennium is small, very small, because the number of judges who are effected will be elected in November and the only moneys that you will save will be during the period from January 1st, 1934, until January 1, 1935. It won't help the budget one iota. I am opposed, members of this House, to the fact that where judges are doing the same work there shall be discrimination in their salary; that is what would happen if this bill would be enacted into law. A judge who was elected last year will receive and continue to receive the same salaries as is now provided by law, but the judges who shall be elected under the terms of this bill shall receive a lesser salary.

I say to you that you have in your county the highest type of men you can get, and then because you can get the high type men to fill the job, because it is an honorary position is no reason why the poor man ought to be deprived from accepting that office. The judiciary of Pennsylvania should not be confined to men who have sufficient private incomes to enable them to be judges. The judiciary of Pennsylvania ought to be open to the poor man who is able and who can get enough money out of his salary as a judge to be a judge. I do not say nor do I advance as an argument that there is a judge within the confines of Pennsylvania who would be dishonest, but I do say that the salary of a judge ought to be so great that there shall be no possible temptation to engage in any other business, whether it be the law business or not.

Members of this House, economy is the byword of this session and economy is what we should have. I have advanced it and shall continue to advance it as the keynote of this session, but members of the House let us not be penny wise and pound foolish. Let us not interfere with the bulwark of our government, the courts of our government, as they be, so shall the Commonwealth be.

Let us vote this measure down, and I say you shall not be accused of turning your backs on economy, but you shall be commended upon the fact that you have refused to let there be in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania two classes of judges performing the same work for different salaries. You shall be commended for saying that the poor man without an income shall be enabled to be a judge.

Members of this House, I ask you to vote this measure down, and do not interfere with the judiciary of Pennsylvania, because the economy is too small for the next biennium to warrant us in so doing.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia this question, when we passed the bill in 1929 raising the salaries of the judges, did all the judges get that raise or only the judges as they were elected?

Mr. WITKIN. I will answer that, Mr. Speaker, that all of the judges in the Commonwealth received the new salaries and there were no judges who were working at different salaries.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, under the decision in 328 of Pennsylvania, we can't reduce them; only the new judges will get the new salary?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, that is correct. I would say in that reduction you will find that there are very few new judges that are being elected. In my opinion any economy that would be accomplished by reason of that reduction of salary is not worth the effort.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman point out to the House in what way we can reduce the salaries of the judges, except by this method, by passing a general reduction salary bill, and have it come into effect as the judges go in? Is there any other method by which we can reduce the salaries of the judges, if we can reduce them?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, there is no other method by which the salaries of the judges can be reduced, and I believe there should be no other method, because the judges are now being under paid in the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I am still directing my inquiry to the question if the gentleman knows of any method by which we can reduce those salaries, reducing those salaries, whether there is any other method of doing it.

Mr. WITKIN. I know of no other method, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, may I say something in answer to the gentleman from McKean?

I surely would be intoxicated with my own importance were I with my humble capacity to speak for the judges of this Commonwealth, but I do take the responsibility, as a citizen of the State of Pennsylvania by saying that there is another method, and that method to my mind is the decent, practical and dignified method.

I doubt if there is a judge on the bench of Pennsylvania today, if he is consistent with his position and has knowledge of the crisis that we are in who would not submit to a voluntary reduction in his salary or a contribution without having the humiliation of this body going on record and having this legislative body reduce his salary.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentleman of the House, I would like to answer the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bennett.

In connection with the Howell resolution, providing for a reduction in the salaries, every judge in this Commonwealth was sent a letter. I might state in that letter, the question was asked, "are you willing to take a voluntary reduction in your salary?" From the information that I have at hand, I think there were but a very few judges who responded to that letter. As a result it becomes evident that it is now a part of the legislative procedure to take the whip in their own hand and judge for themselves whether the judiciary of Pennsylvania should in this extreme time take a reduction in salary.

I hold no brief for any judge. I think that the bench of Pennsylvania has represented on it probably the best legal minds in this State. There was a time when we were extravagant with the money in the treasury, we did not know what to do with it. We organized and originated new departments. We started in 1921 to institute a Department of Revenue. It was no time until that had passed by. In 1927 under Governor Fisher's administration it came about again with the financial resources in our treasury that we had to establish the Department of Revenue. So there has been a multiplicity of one department after another with the result that we now find ourselves in the position that we find that the anticipated revenues for 1931-1933 will fall short by possibly sixteen or seventeen million dollars.

Everybody hates economy. Economy is only good for the other fellow but it is bad for you, but there is a sane argument here. There are men on the bench today who would be very willing possibly to take a reduction, but they have not expressed themselves. There are many lawyers in the State of Pennsylvania that will take a position on the bench at the reduced salary of today.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, sets out the fact that this is just a minor saving for the biennium. True that may be, because I understand there are only one-fifth of the entire membership of the judiciary re-elected or elected to office in 1934. It is for two years. The following two years another division will be re-elected and so it goes on in an endless chain until every member on the bench will be receiving a like salary.

We can not deviate, we cannot make the line of demarcation with every set of judges. We all recall when the bill was passed back in 1929, the Supreme Court Justices said "we are an exception" therefore it holds good for all the rest of the judiciary.

I recall in 1923, under the administration program for 1923, men in the department had to retire, had to resign very often so, that they might be beneficiaries of the increase, but that was not true of the judges. They were the oustanding individuals of Pennsylvania and could do as they saw fit.

I say that this is the time when everybody must take it on the chin. You are giving it to the teachers, you are giving it to all the departments, you are giving it to yourselves. In your own salary you are taking almost a twenty per cent. reduction as compared to 1925 and I see nothing wise in reducing the salary of the judiciary at the present time.

Much as it may hurt, and as the gentleman has said they must maintain a standard of living different from the average. I agree with him, but the cost of living today if the information is right from Washington, is twenty-six and one-half per cent. less than it was two years ago. If that is true they can easily take a salary reduction.

Therefore, I think, ladies and gentlemen of the House, we owe it to ourselves, we owe it to the people of the State to vote for this measure. I am sure that there will be plenty of judges and plenty of lawyers who will be tickled to death to be upon the bench of Pennsylvania at a reduced salary.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally.

All other acts and parts of acts general local and special inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed But nothing contained in this act shall be construed to repeal any law relating to the purity or adulteration of beverages or any law relating to sanitation

Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to repeal or in any manner to impair the provisions of the act approved the second day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-three) entitled "An act to permit the growers of grapes in this Commonwealth to manufacture wine from grapes of their own raising that are not first class or marketable and sell such wine to licensed dealers without taking out or paying a license for such manufacture or sale"

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the committee?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, your Committee of Conference has laid before you a report on what is known as the beer bill.

The report laid before you provides that the judges of the court of quarter sessions grant the licenses. Your committee for a long while debated the question of whether or not it was proper for either commissions, county treasurers, or other officials to grant licenses. They spent hours debating that question, and at times it seemed to me that the committee was trying to find a one hundred per cent. power to grant licenses, a one hundred per cent. just and proper power and after all of their study they came to the conclusion that the power should be properly vested in the court.

Two principles have been laid before the House and the Senate. The one principle is that beer licenses should be granted indiscriminately to everybody who asked for them and was willing to pay the fee, the other was that in order to collect the revenue, in order to regulate and restrain the use of beer it was proper that a licensing power should exist that would determine on two questions, namely, whether the applicant for the license was a fit person and whether the place applied for was a fit place for a license. Recently the committee was handed suggested amendments by the Attorney General and those amendments were considered. The amendments submitted by the Attorney General suggested that the county treasurer grant liquor licenses and the county treasurer pass upon who is reputable and who is not, that the county treasurer pass upon whether the place was reputable and proper.

It seems to me and it seemed to the committee that giving to an administrative officer an executive officer, the power to pass on what was fit and what was reputable and whether the place was proper was giving too much power to one man. We felt that giving that to a county treasurer was really to put liquor in politics and not out of politics. We felt that somewhere the power should exist and that it should be taken away from politics as far as posible, and after all our consideration we could find no better place than the court of quarter sessions.

Now, your committee is not without precedent in this viewpoint. Your committee drafted this report using the Brooks High License Law of 1887 as its form and guide. The report before you is practically the Brooks High License Law all over again, and the Brooks High License Law your committee concluded was probably one of the best liquor laws that has ever been enacted in any State in this Union. We examined the laws of many States, many of their new laws, but we could find none that seemed to be equal to or anywheres near our Brooks High License Law.

Your committee carefully considered the principle of whether licenses should be indiscriminately issued to anybody that might pay the fee, and they turned back the pages of history, they examined the legislative journals, they reviewed the debates on the Brooks High License Law, and they found that the evil that brought about the Brooks High License Law was the indiscriminate issuance of liquor licenses; that there were so many persons engaged in the liquor business that they were unable to make a livelihood, and, as a result in order to make a livelihood, they resorted to various kinds of vice and dissipation, particularly gambling and so on.

We thought that the experience of the Legislature of 1887 should be our experience, and that there should be a limit and not an indiscriminate issuance of licenses.

We provide in our report for local option for those places that might not want to drink beer.

We provide regulations so that the brewer will be responsible for the product of his brewery until the time that it reaches the consumer. We have tried to keep it proper and wholesome in every way we possibly could. The amendments submitted by the Attorney General and our bill differ only as to the principle of the indiscriminate issuance of licenses and as to the licensing power and I think, and your committee thinks, that the report provides for a better system than that suggested by the Attorney General.

I ask you to vote for this report.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker on page 16 of the Conference Report I would like to direct the attention of the gentleman from Philadelphia to the fact that it specifies that the manufacturer's license shall be paid to the State Treasurer. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia point out to the members of the House, to whom the license fees for the wholesale and retail distributors shall be paid?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the construction placed on the bill is the same as would be placed on the Brooks High License Law. Those fees would be paid to the county treasurers after the license is granted by the court of quarter sessions and before the license is lifted from the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions office, the receipt of the county treasurer is produced to the clerk of quarter sessions. That system was regulated throughout the Commonwealth by the rules of the respective courts of quarter sessions.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, however, show us where in this particular bill, where there is any specific provision designating to whom the license fees for wholesale and retail distributors shall be paid?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the rules of the court cover that subject and cover it well under the Brooks High License Law. I practiced under the Brooks High License Law, and our practice was to present the petition to the court, then we had our hearing, the opponents and proponents of the license appeared and after the court concluded to grant a license the clerk of the quarter sessions held the license until the man paid to the county treasurer the fee for the license, and then he deposited the receipt with the clerk of quarter sessions.

Mr. RHODES. But is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that this specific bill does not specify to whom the license shall be paid.

Mr. SOWERS. Neither did the Brooks High License Law, Mr. Speaker. That was left to the rule of the licensing power.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, the act makes no recognition of that fact.

Mr. SOWERS. The act provides for the licensing power to adopt rules to carry the act into force and effect.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Philadelphia refer to page 33 of this report of conference, section 30. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia tell us that this bill is constitutional because it provides for regulations for licensing and also for State taxes.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the question asked by the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, is a question to which your committee gave most through consideration and thought; is this act unconstitutional? The act provides for the restraint and regulation of beer. That is the subject matter of the act. The act is a regulation and a restraint of an alcoholic beverage and is an incident to that purpose. A tax of $1.24 per barrel is placed on each barrel of beer and is an incident to that regulation. License fees are fixed and graded according to population and that is an incident to the regulation. Provisions as to adulteration of beer are contained in the report, and they are incident to the regulation.

We, after considerable thought, conculded that the bill contained one subject matter and that subject matter was the regulation and restraint of an alcoholic beverage known as beer. We examined some of the authorities of our Commonwealth, and we found quite a number of them which sustained our view. After doing that, we submitted the matter to attorneys for their opinion, and then we submitted the matter to our Legisaltive Bureau, Mr. Fertig, whose opinion I hold very highly, and he was of the opinion that the act was constitutional in every particular and your committee is likewise of that opinion. If you desire I will give you some authorities.

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is midnight, the witching hour around which so many mysteries are entwined, and it is fit and proper that we have selected this hour to discuss House Bill No. 1681, the mystery bill of this session.

Let me as one of the committee attempt in a feeble way, to explain away one of the mysteries, one of the crucial points upon which there was much discussion, and perhaps much misunderstanding.

The great American philosopher and keen humorist Abe Martin, said that the only thing that came out of the World War were four-minute speeches.

I am going to try at this late hour to keep within the time limit which has been set in telling you a few things which transpired.

This thing of prohibition has been a paramount issue to our nation for more than twenty-five years.

In the last thirteen years we have had a situation in this country where everything has been subordinated to it. Religion, economies, politics and everything else was tainted with prohibition.

The President of the United States and the Congress, in increasing the alcoholic content of this beer—the so-called beer that we now have—I believe had in mind the relief of the unemployment situation by putting men to work in the breweries, helping the farmers, increasing the manufacture of trucks and by creating new business. That is, to bring back places of business that will occupy many of our vacant storerooms throughout this country. This bill provides for that, because it proposes that restaurants and hotels shall be permitted to be licensed. On that point we agreed, but the one point on which we did not agree was the method of granting the licenses.

The distinguished gentleman from Philadelphia said a moment ago "Let us turn back the pages to that great law, the Brooks High License Law." I admit that it was the second best liquor control law in America; Massachusetts had the best. But let us continue, as the distinguished gentleman from Philadelphia has said, and open the books and see what it says about the Brooks law.

No law is good unless it is efficiently and effectively administered. What did you find under the Brooks law? You found that licenses were granted by the courts. You found a different construction placed on the law in every county in this great State; each judge placed his own interpretation upon that law. You found in many counties that there were no licenses granted, you found in others too many.

I have all the respect in the world for the judges in Pennsylvania. You heard a lot about them tonight. There are many, many outstanding brilliant judges who add honor and dignity to their high calling, but unfortunately there are others. The Sterling report gives you a striking example. It was a motorious fact that in my county one judge, under the Brooks High License Law, owned twenty-one saloons. I do not want a repetition of that.

My friends, the symbol of Justice, as carved and sculptured, is shown with a bandage around her eyes and it is misinterpreted to mean that she is blind to injustice. In truth, that bandage is to conceal the welts and the black eyes she has received from a lot of judges. No law was ever more misinterpreted in the State of Pennsylvania than the Brooks High License Law, a very fine, efficient law, which was very badly administered and I don't want my State to get into that condition again. I do not want the judges in this State to administer that law again. To my personal knowledge twenty-seven high type judges of this Commonwealth have requested me to oppose it and have said to me that they do not want it, and I question if there is one Christian, God-fearing judge that does want it.

We stand for a commission, a bi-partisan commission, such as that operating in the great State of Ohio and in the great State of New Jersey. The Democratic members, at least a great majority of them, have never hesitated on any matter pertaining to this commission that would add any burden upon this State. The matter of the amount of pay that they would receive was never a serious handicap to the establishment of a commission. We were at all times willing to go along on the assumption that the commission that would grant these licenses should receive no compensation for it. We believe that there are enough high type men in this State who would be willing to take what had been a bad business and dress it up and make it respectable.

Personally I have no interest in this matter. I am a dry wet; I have no brewery connections; I don't care whether they ever make a drop of beer again or not. I have been working on the question of legality and to bring the matter back to a decent condition. The judge control of licenses in this State was the greatest factor to bring about prohibition. The liquor business became a disreputable business and prohibition was inevitable.

Men and women, are you going to place this business back to where it was? If a commission, a bi-partisan commission of some kind, can efficiently regulate and control the licenses in Ohio and in New Jersey, why can't a commission of the same kind do the same thing here? They would place that business, which is a hazardous and dangerous business, in a position where we would not need to be ashamed of it, a position that will insure in this State the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, that will bring a great amount of revenue in a legitimate manner, bring back good beer and eliminate bad liquor, eliminate the frustration of the law and eliminate politics from the business. It was politics that brought prohibition upon you.

If you pass this beer bill and place the licensing back in the hands of the judges, many of whom are of the Judas type, you will find that you will never repeal the Eighteenth Amendment in this State, because they will make a tragedy and a travesty of the beer bill.

I therefore ask you, as decent men and women, earnestly trying to add respectability to the beer business of the State, to vote this measure down and create a commission that will intelligently handle it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, under this measure in what manner are containers in transit marked or stamped to indicate that the tax has been paid?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, so that you will better understand the answer, I will relate for you some of the problems we have had before us. The tax problems were these; should it be a production tax; should it be a sales tax, or should it be a stamp tax? We debated that for a long while. We all felt that our experiences with the sales tax was not very satisfactory. We all felt that the stamp tax was not satisfactory because the system involved creating a large number of jobs to see that the stamps had been properly cancelled. We thought that a large part of the revenues raised by the bill would go to the payment of a large number of office holders, and therefore not to unemployment relief. We asked Mr. Fertig for his opinion, and everyone came to the conclusion that the best system of taxation was what is known as the production tax.

Now, as I understand, the brewers make the beer, the United States Government has a supervisor in each brewery, and when the beer is ready to be run off in barrels, it is then run off in a standard sized big tank or vat or something of that kind, and then the United States Government is there and measures it, and then the supervisor affixes the stamp tax on that big vat, and there is a record kept of that to which our State department has access. We thought if the United State Government was furnishing these facilities, that we should not duplicate the work at a great expense to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Then we adopted the production tax as our method. We thought that the tax should be a dollar a barrel, but after listening to the Attorney General and others we compromised on one dollar and twenty-four cents a barrel, which mean a tax of one-half of one cent on each bottle of beer. The production tax is paid by the brewer every month. He makes a return, and that return can be verified by comparison with United States Government supervisors' reports.

For beer that is made out of the Commonwealth, that was a difficult question to solve; how to collect a tax on it. The act of Congress which authorizes this legislation is a peculiar act. It is difficult to read and it is difficult to understand. The house did not say when it passed this beer legislation that this beer was intoxicating or non-intoxicating When the sponsor of the measure was on the floor of the House members of Congress twitted him about the bill, that it did not say whether this beer was intoxicating or non-intoxicatin. All that the Act of Congress says is that this 3.2 beer is taken out of the Volstead Act and is lawful if it is contained in barrels with the United States revenue stamp on it. If the beer is in barrels that do not have United States revenue stamps on them, it is illegal beer and the possessor of it is liable to punishment under the Volstead Act, and also under the penalties provided by the Act of Congress. The Act of Congress went further and said the various States——

Mr. Andrews. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, is not answering my question.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, restate his question?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I asked the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, under this act in what manner containers in transit were marked to indicate that the tax has been paid?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the beer starts in the brewery and must be put in the original container in the brewery and must have the brewer's mark on it. It is a production tax.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his succinct and brief answer.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not understand the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I said that I thanked the gentleman for his succinct and brief answer.

Mr. Speaker, this measure is a control measure and a revenue raiser. However admirable it may be as a control measure, no bill was ever more loosely constructed than this measure from the point of revenue raising.

If this measure were properly labelled, it would be termed "A bill for the encouragement of bootlegging and illicit traffic in beer."

The gentleman from Philadelphia has said that the containers in traffic bear no mark indicating that the tax has been paid. He also, by inference, has said that containers in storage bear no mark indicating that the tax has been paid. When a case of beer or a barrel of beer or a quarter of beer gets out in this State it loses its identity. Its course cannot be traced, and all of the detectives in the United States could no run down all of the beer in the market and find out whether or not the tax has been paid. A revenue man seeing a truckload of beer going down the street cannot stop that truck and ascertain whether the revenue has been paid. Under this bill Pennsylvania brewers will be crucified and the bootlegger will be exalted.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is only one reasonable, sensible way of going about this business, and that is the way of the United States Government in the old days, by means of a Stamp Act. If your bottle of beer has a stamp on it, you know it has paid the tax, and if the barrel of beer has a stamp on it, you know it has paid the tax, but under this measure if it doesn't have a stamp on it nobody knows whether it has paid the tax or not. We have recently had an example of the extent to which, under the eyes of the law, illicit brewers can be coupled up in a chain with legal brewers, and we have just had a very eminent brewer shot in New Jersey for doing that very thing.

The gentleman from Philadelphia and the committee had an option. They could have brought into this Legislature a revenue measure, and they could have brought into this Legislature a control measure. The gentleman from Philadelphia knows that by joining control and revenue he has brought in a measure that will never become a law, and by passing this bill we simply protract the time during which Pennsylvania will lose the revenue from the beer manufactured in this State.

There is a beer bill pending in this House that would tax beer now, so, wholly irrespective of the control features, which are damnable and which degraded the courts of my county and degraded the bar and degraded the legal profession until the county revolted, I say that even though I could go along with a control measure, I cannot stand silent and not protest against the measure which gives us the damnable system of control that this bill does and keeps the State of Pennsylvania out of the revenue.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my friend's argument is so full of holes that it is not necessary to call your attention to more than one or two of them.

The method of taxation provided in this bill is the method of taxation provided for our gasoline tax, and how many millions of dollars did we collect through that method, and how little did we lose, and whoever heard of a gallon of gasoline bought with a stamp on it.

My friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, fails to understand the bill. The bill provides that no one shall manufacture beer until he gets a license, and no one can manufacture it but a manufacturer with a license. Any one caught manufacturing beer without a license is subject to the penalties of the bill. Every manufacturer must put his product in an original container and on that original container he must stamp his name and address, and any beer in transit without the name and address of the manufacturer would be boot-leg beer, and would be immediately seized. Every protection that could be taken was taken by the committee in the preparation of this bill, to see that every dollar that can be collected will be collected, and I think plenty will be collected under the bill.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose the passage of House Bill No. 1.

Ever since the fanatical drys imposed upon the American people the detestable crime referred to in kind and charitable language as the "Noble Experiment," American politics, National, State and Local, have been contaminated with the illegal traffic in booze and all the evils that have followed in its wake. Time after time, election after election, we have witnessed the pitiful spectacle of important issues subordinated, and at times entirely forgotten, by the ever present issue of prohibition. Those of us who have been numbered among the group known as wets have sincerely and faithfully worked for a change. We have often used, as one of our arguments, the fact that the liquor question had not only brought upon us the many evils of crime, racketeering and bootlegging but also the fact that slowly but surely the very foundations of our government were being undermined by the close alliance that had crept up between organized criminals and all the branches of our government. Time after time many of us have declared that we were not primarily interested in the return of legal booze but that we were more concerned with the elimination of political corruption, reduce organized crime, divorce from politics the illegal traffic in booze, and bring back justice and decency in our political system.

Our efforts began to bear fruit when last November the Nation, distressed by the economic breakdown, menaced by the undermining influences of corruption and organized crime, revolted against the old order and demanded a new deal through the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt and his followers.

Among other things the new deal included the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and the modification of the Volstead Act. Our President and his Congress, responsive to the mandate of the people, have made possible the new deal and within the past few weeks they have not only given us beer but they have also paved the way for the ultimate repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

It was to be hoped that we in Pennsylvania, the wettest State in the Union, would grasp the opportunity offered and advance the interest of the repeal movement by sensible legislation for beer control; it was to be hoped that since we have insisted that prohibition was responsible for a great proportion of the corruption in our political system, we would grasp the opportunity to prevent further corruption that might result from any alliance between booze and politics; it was to be hoped that we in Pennsylvania would assist in the performance of the major operation of divorcing booze from politics; it was to be hoped that the Republican party in Pennsylvania would be responsive to public opinion and make an effort to keep booze out of politics; [(it was to be presumed that the party of Jefferson and Roosevelt, who have been most militant in working against the prohibition evils and who are expected to keep faith with the mandate of the people and their platform, the party that should co-operate with its great leader in Washington, would insist on a new deal and demand that booze and politics be forever separated;)] but it seems that instead of unselfish statesmanship which the time demand, we have fallen into the ways of old and agreed, avarice and political ambitions have again triumphed. It appears that the God of gold and of power are to be worshipped as before It appears that in the mad scramble for money, power, patronage and political position, we have forgotten party obligations, platforms, pledges and most of all our duty to the taxpayers and the best interests of our free and democratic government.

The bill before this body by its terms as found in Section 2, paragraph H. provides for the issuances of licenses by the Courts of Pennsylvania: I consider this as a direct insult to the dignity and exalted position of our Courts. It is a menace to the future efficiency, integrity and position of respect which our Courts deserve and which they have maintained throughout an age of corruption. The judges of our Courts will resent the efforts of this Legislature to reduce the bench to the level of a licensing bureau. The public will oppose the injection of the liquor issue into our judicial elections.

From all parts of the State we have heard cries of economy and demands that the salaries of our judges be reduced, and from the other side we hear demands that the membership of our Courts be enlarged in order to expedite litigation long delayed. If we expect to effect economy at the expense of our judiciary let us not crowd the Courts with the additional work that will be created under this bill. If we are to expedite litigation and make possible speedy trials, both criminal and civil, let us not give the Courts additional work that could be just as effeciently and effectively administered by some other agency.

Economy can not be affected by increasing the number of judges nor by placing further burdens on our already burdened bench.

The worst feature of the bill is the fact that instead of eliminating the liquor issue from our political campaigns, we would only transfer it from our National campaigns and place it in our judicial elections. We can well remember the condition that prevailed under the Brooks High License Law. Under that law the judges were not elected on their judicial ability but on their position on the liquor question. This bill would once more bring to us the spectacle of the liquor interests contributing heavily to the campaign funds of candidates for the bench and the radical dries doing likewise.

Under the terms of this bill the bootlegger and the speakeasies would still be with us. The ward politician would once more control the dispensation of liquor licenses and the highest bidder in votes would be the licensee. Political protection and favoritism would still be at a premium, and instead of eliminating the many evils brought upon us by the "noble experiment" we would simply increase them manifold.

It is superfluous for me to point to the fact that there is great danger that our courts would become corrupt and when corruption is permitted to creep into our judiciary I fear that the end of free and democratic government is not distant.

For those of us who are anxious and sincere in our efforts to bring about the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, allow me to point out that if we make any mistakes in our manner of controlling the distribution of beer, that the fanatical prohibitionists will gladly seize upon such an opportunity and use it as propaganda in their efforts to prevent the ratification of the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Thus the ammunition which the wets will furnish will be used to defeat our object. The ammunition will consist of all the evils that are present under the Volstead Act in addition to the many evils that will be made possible by such legislation as we are now considering. To make the point clear, allow me to read you an editorial that appeared in the March 31 edition of the Pittsburgh Press:

DANGER!—An Editorial

It is time the people took a hand to end the wretched beer tangle at Harrisburg.

Representatives and Senators are at their homes for the week-end and it is a splendid opportunity for constituents to express the disgust they feel over the nauseating political scrap that has developed over the control of beer.

Selfish legislators, seeking political influence through control of beer licenses, are jeopardizing the success of the great 14-year battle waged in this country for repeal of prohibition.

What the people want is the enactment of a simple, fair, non-political beer bill that will give them beer, as soon as it becomes legal, under restrictions creditable to the State and conducive to speedy national repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Governor Pinchot, in agreement with certain Republican leaders, has outlined such a bill

But the machine politicians of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia—always ready to place political motives above principle—bolted it. They want the Republican machine to control beer. And the Democrats—getting their first chance to function as an important bloc in a Pennsylvania Legislature—have gone even farther. They want a purely political bi-partisan board, with members named by the State chairman of the two parties, to handle beer licenses.

Thus are the machine Republicans of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, and the Democratic legislators by whose party beer was brought back, playing directly into the hands of the drys by having a cheap, disgusting, political fight over a beverage that Congress and the President have declared to be non-intoxicating.

It is time for the people to take a hand. An immediate barrage of letters, telegrams and telephone calls should convince the obstructive legislators that the people have lost all patience with those who are trying to stir politics into beer.

The Pinchot bill is a fair measure that will give Pennsylvania beer without graft. It should be passed.

In closing let me say that as a lawyer I should offer my support to this bill because it would be a financial blessing for the legal profession, but as a representative of the people, as a friend of real temperance and as a Democrat, I must oppose this bill and ask the members of the House to assist me in defeating it.

Let us for once during this session of the Legislature forget personal greed and ambition; let us forget political classification and lines, let us for once produce a constructive and sensible measure that will not only remove and abolish the many evils that have encroached upon our social and political system, but will also assure the ultimate repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Let us be Americans and Pennsylvanians first, and give to the people of Pennsylvania something that is free from political influence.

From all parts of this State we have heard cries for economy and a demand that the salaries of judges be decreased, and only this evening we have voted to decrease the salaries of the judges, and now, inconsistent, as we always have been, we are trying to put more work on our courts in Pennsylvania.

I ask this body to vote down this measure as a foolish piece of legislation that will only bring more corruption into this State and Nation.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Joseph R. Lynch, Dwyer, Yeakel, Haines, Cooke, Baldi, Bennett, Scorza, O'Rourke, Spann, Ruby, Metzier, Maloney, Reed, Hough, Cordier, John J. Williams, Hart, Witkins, Ederer, Laubach, Baker and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. JAMES E. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Legislative Journal.

Session 1933 — 130th of the General Assembly

Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1933. — No. 50

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 18, 1933.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, we thank Thee for the glorious sunshine of this morning. Be with us and bless us all, and grant that as we come closer to the end of this session, after all the work and worry these Senators have been doing, that they may keep themselves in perfect peace, so that they may not become nervous and fretful with each other. Help us always to be at peace with ourselves and with Thee. Guide us and keep up this day. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BUCKMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITION

PROTESTING AGAINST SENATE BILL No. 65.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate petition from the Sandy Township Taxpayers Association, of Clearfield County, protesting against Senate Bill No. 65.

Which was referred to the Committee on New Counties and County Seats.

with or exercising influence over, public service companies, and restricting the making of contracts and arrangements between public service companies and certain other persons and corporations; providing the method of publishing notices required in utility procedure; and extending rights of consumers in reparation and appealed cases.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

HOUSE NON-CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1656.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House of Representatives has non-concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1656, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 9 of the act approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1780), entitled "Judges Salary Law," by reducing the compensation and further defining the traveling expenses of judges presiding in other districts.

SENATE INSISTS UPON AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1656

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist on the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1656.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Last evening House Bill No. 1664, Senate Bill No. 920, passed the Senate by a vote of forty-nine to one. It is now in the hands of the Governor. This bill was one of the many House Bills introduced by the "four horsemen" of reform, Messrs. McClure, Flynn, Steedle and P. Sterling. My vote was the sole vote cast in the negative. I feel impelled to inform the people of Dauphin County why I cast that vote, and, as well, to explain to Governor Pinchot my views on certain other matters closely related thereto.

House Bill No. 1664 is an amendment to the act creating the State Workmen's Insurance Fund, which provides for a super-audit of that Fund by the Insurance Department. I do not intend to discuss the technique of the bill, although I do not know why the Pinchot-controlled Insurance Department was selected by the "four horsemen" of reform. Auditing is done by the Auditor General, under the law, and by the Pinchot-controlled Department of Revenue, when an audit is desired by the Governor. Hence the economy significance of the bill is not as apparent as is the political significance.

As to its political significance, I read the following news item appearing in last night's Harrisburg Telegraph:

"J. H. DELVIN TAKES $7500 POSITION QUIT BY STITELER

Retiring Workmen's Insurance Head to Enter Brokerage Business

J. Howard Devlin, 36, of Pittsburgh, today becomes manager of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund.

He succeeds W. John Stiteler, Jr., of Harrisburg, who resigned two weeks ago. * * *

The position carriers a salary of $7500 a year. His appointment will be sent to the Senate tonight for confirmation.

Mr. Stiteler, whose resignation as manager of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund, became effective Saturday, was confined to bed in his Paxtang home today. He has been ill for several days.

He is planning definitely to enter the brokerage business, he said, but doesn't care to discuss details 'at this time.' 'A little later when I'm feeling better,' he promised.

Stiteler's service in the State post was marked by an economy program which saved the Commonwealth considerable money. Notable among these economy moves were the reduction of the payroll and moving to new office quarters at a saving in rent.

Stiteler handled the Pinchot campaign in Dauphin county in 1930 and on January 20, 1931, was named the post which he recently resigned. * * *"

The statement that the Stiteler management "was marked by an economy program which saved the Commonwealth considerable money," is awe-inspiring. It has been reported that under the Stiteler management the fund is almost bankrupt. But I insist that the fault is not of Stiteler's making. Captain Jack Stiteler is a victim of circumstance and of environment.

To understand the picture I must briefly refer to recent political history in Dauphin County. The Telegraph correctly said that Stiteler handled the Pinchot campaign in Dauphin County in 1930. It should have added that, until a few months ago, Stiteler was Pinchot's Dauphin County prime minister. I further call attention to a news article that appeared in the Harrisburg Patriot shortly after January 1, 1931, which reads:

"Upon his return from Milford, Stiteler said: 'Last spring at the time of the primary, I was promised the full patronage powers for Dauphin County in the event Mr. Pinchot was elected. The promise still holds. 'If Senator Earnest will swing in for Mansfield at the caucus I'll guarantee him that he will get a fair show in dispensing the patronage. 'If he votes for Daix, it's war.'"

Ever since it has been war in Dauphin County, war with Captain Stiteler always gallantly leading the Pinchot forces, a war without a Pinchot victory. But while no laurel of victory crowns Captain Stiteler's brow, to him has gone all the spoils of office, and almost two thousand Dauphin County employees on Capitol Hill, holding jobs through the sponsorship of Captain Stiteler, are terror stricken, while their gallant sponsor lies crushed and bleeding beneath the wheels of the Pinchot chariot.

I do not want Captain Stiteler to be made the "goat" of the Pinchot administration and therefore I voted against the bill. The maladministration, which, according to current report, has characterized that department has resulted from the fact that Captain Stiteler loved Governor Pinchot not wisely but too well.

And last evening when I heard our distinguished Chief Executive horsewhipping fifty Senators in general and Doctor King in particular, the thought occurred to me that possibly Captain Stiteler, as well as Doctor King, would now endorse the conviction which the Senator from Dauphin has long held, viz. that "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle," than it is for an honest man to indefinitely bask in the golden sunshine of the Pinchot smile.

Possibly a somewhat fanciful illustration of the relationship heretofore existing between Governor Pinchot and his Dauphin County prime minister is to be found in the relationship between Henry VIII of England and his Prime Minister, Cardinal Wolsey. Recently I read an article which stated:

"Henry III was developing a taste for the substance of that power so long monopolized by the mighty chancellor. The costliness of Wolsey's showey * policy was added to other grounds for popular murmurings against him. When, having made himself responsible for the success of Henry's appeal to Rome * * * the Cardinal committed the unpardonable crime of failure, his doom was sealed. The King's rage, overflowing all bounds, in a moment swept away every one of Wolsey's civil offices and preferments. * * * Summoned to London, to answer to a charge of treason, he died on the way, crying out—so says tradition—'Had I but served my God as faithfully as I have served my King, He would not have given me over in my gray hairs.'"

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. PRESIDENT. Mr. Shapiro moved to recommit Senate Bill No. 922 (House Bill No. 1675), entitled:

An Act to further amend paragraph (b) of section nine of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred nine) entitled "An act relating to the organization maintenance and operation of the Department of Banking and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations partnerships unincorporated associations and individuals and the assets and liabilites thereof providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen with table of contents" by requiring building and loan associations to pay the full cost of examinations by the Department of Banking.

be recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, know that the bill came from the Committee on Finance?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I looked it up in the Senate History and found the bill was reported out from that committee.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, know the purpose of this bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think I do. I have examined the bill and the proposed code, and I have taken the matter up with Attorney General Schnader's department and pointed out to them that the same saving will result under the proposed code as would result under this proposed act, and with their knowledge I make this motion, to avoid duplication.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I understand that this bill provides for the fees to be paid by banks and building and loan associations under investigation, and this is an item that will save the State about $250,000. We have heard a great deal with reference to economy, at this session of the Legislature, and this is one way to provide for economy—by having the building and loan associations pay for the services rendered. The banks are already paying for such services, and the building and loan associations are in just as good a position to pay as the banks are.

I object to having this bill recommitted.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am just as much in favor of economy as anyone else, and this bill is one put forth by the "Four Horsemen," and is referred to as an economy measure. I have examined this bill, together with the section of the proposed Department of Banking Code I have referred to, and I find that the proposed code covers just as much ground, or more than this bill. I call the attention of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, to the section I referred to, Section 204 of the Department of Banking Code, which says, in paragraph A:

"A," "All the expenses of the Department, including those enumerated in this act or otherwise authorized by law, shall be charged to and paid by all institutions in such equitable amounts, at such times, and in such manner as the Department shall by general rule or regulation prescribe. The expenses incurred by the Department in connection with any examination or investigation, whether regular or special, including a proportionate part of the salary of any examiner or other employe of the Department engaged in such examination or investigation, and all counsel assigned by the Department of Justice at the request of the Department of Banking to an examination or investigation, may be assessed by the Department of Banking upon the particular institution examined or investigated."

That covers the entire subject matter of this bill. The result of the passage of this bill would only be confusion, as this bill has already been incorporated in the proposed code.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I also object to recommitting this bill, because the argument is based on "if and when." Now, there are so many Senators who are dissatisfied with the proposed Department of Banking Code,— and the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is one of those discontented Senators who may vote down the Department of Banking Code,—that I think this bill should stay on the calendar, because the "if and when" is somewhat uncertain.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am not asking that this bill be destroyed or laid aside, but simply that it be recommitted to the committee until there is some action on general legislation covering the same subject matter. The proposed code has been approved, the amendments submitted yesterday voted down, and undoubtedly the code will come up for action in the very near future; and now we are engaged in passing a bill which narrows the subject matter of the proposed code.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, it seems to me that the Senate ought to pass this bill, because we should not take any chances on what may happen to the Department of Banking Code or any other bill or group of bills. There is no reason why this bill could not be recalled from the Governor's desk if the Department of Banking Code should go over there.

For instance, there is a bill I introduced which I found was, word for word, in this proposed code, and so that you will not have both my bill and the banking code over on the Governor's desk at the same time I recalled my bill from the Governor, and it now lies on the President's table.

It seems to me it is far too important to take a chance by recommitting this bill to any committee, taking the chance of the proposed banking code passing over in the House. The thing that occurs to me as the proper thing to do is to pass this bill, send it to the Governor, and if there is a likelihood of the proposed banking code passing over there, there is nothing to prevent this Senate from recalling this bill from the Governor's desk. I do not think we should take any chance at all.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 922 (House Bill No. 1676), as follows:

An Act to further amend paragraph (b) of Section nine of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred nine) entitled "An act relating to the organization maintenance and operation of the Department of Banking and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations partnerships unincorporated associations and individuals and the assets and liabilities thereof providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen with table of contents" by requiring building and loan associations to pay the full cost of examinations by the Department of Banking

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That paragraph (b) of Section nine of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and nine) entitled "An act relating to the organization maintenance and operation of the Department of Banking and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations partnerships unincorporated associations and individuals and the assets and liabilities thereof providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen with table of contents" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixteen) is hereby further amended to read as follows

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SALUS, from the Committee on Elections, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 709 (House Bill No. 257), entitled:

An Act to amend sections thirty-seven and thirty-eight of the act approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-seven) entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions, and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and counsel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office, and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days; and empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offenses in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copied by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fees; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers, and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen to and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations hereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith"; regulating the correction of registers upon petitions of electors, by placing the burden of proof upon the petitioner in proceedings to strike names from the register.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HUNSICKER, from the Committee on Elections, re-reported as committed, amended, Senate Bill No. 420, entitled:

An Act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TRAINER, from the Committee on Finance, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 975 (House Bill No. 1647), entitled:

An Act to amend sections eight and fifteen of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred sixty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" as amended by authorizing the Department of Labor and Industry to charge for the cost of making examinations of plans and eliminating duplicating and overlapping inspections of plans in certain cases.

An Act to secure the compulsory attendance of non-resident witnesses in criminal cases and to make uniform the law relating thereto

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same as follows

Section 1 Summoning Witnesses in this State to Testify in Another State If a judge of a court of record in any state which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify in criminal prosecutions in this state certifies under the seal of such court that there is a criminal prosecution pending in such court that a person being within this state is a material witness in such prosecution and that his presence will be required for a specified number of days upon presentation of such certificate to any judge of a court of record in the county in which such person is such judge shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall notify the witness of such time and place

If at the hearing the judge determines that the witness is material and necessary that it will not cause undue hardship to the witness to be compelled to attend and testify in the prosecution in the other state that the witness will not be compelled to travel more than one thousand miles to reach the place of trial by the ordinary traveled route and that the laws of the state in which the prosecution is pending and of any other state through which the witness may be required to pass by ordinary course of travel will give to him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process he shall issue a summons with a copy of the certificate attached directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the prosecution is pending at a time and place specified in the summons

If the witness who is summoned as above provided after being paid or tendered by some properly authorized person the sum of ten cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending and five dollars for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state

Section 2 Witness From Another State Summoned to Testify in this State If a person in any state which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within its borders to attend and testify in criminal prosecution in this court of a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of record in this state a judge of such court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required This certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness is found

If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in the criminal prosecution in this state he shall be tendered the sum of ten cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending and five dollars for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the summons shall not be required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the period mentioned in the certificate

Section 3 Exemption from Arrest and Service of Process If a person comes into this state in obedience to a summons directing him to attend and testify in a criminal prosecution in this state he shall not while in this state pursuant to such summons be subject to arrest or the service of process civil or criminal in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons

If a person passes through this state while going to another state in obedience to a summons to attend and testify in a criminal prosecution in that state or while returning therefrom he shall not while so passing through this state be subject to arrest or the service of process civil or criminal in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons

Section 4 Uniformity of Interpretation This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it

Section 5 Short Title This act may be cited as "Uniform Act to Secure the Attendance of Witnesses from Without the State in Criminal Cases"

Section 6 Inconsistent Laws Repealed All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 7 Time of Taking Effect This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and approval by the Governor

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1238 (House Bill No. 1198), entitled:

An Act relating to dentistry; defining and providing for the licensing and registration of dentists, and dental hygienists, and for the revocation and suspension of such licenses and registrations subject to appeal, and for their reinstatement; defining the powers and duties of the State Dental Council and Examining Board and the Department of Public Instruction; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws.

be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, what is the purpose of recommitting this bill? This bill came from the Committee on Education. Is this the dentist bill the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman is talking about?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, what is the purpose of recommitting the bill?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I think this is the proper committee to discuss this bill.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I believe this bill should not be recommitted at this time. This bill was considered by the Committee on Education, and it is fostered by the Dental Society of Pennsylvania and by the Dental Board, and they are very anxious to have this bill; and I can not see why it should be sent back to the committee because any medical society might object to it.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I was wrong. I withdraw the motion.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Center, Mr. Scott, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President and members of the Senate. Again last night the Governor of this Commonwealth accused members of the Legislature of putting needless difficulties in the way of getting relief for the unemployed and their families. "For the last month," he said in his speech to this body, "the fight to guard Pennsylvanians against starvation has left me little or no time for anything else."

The truth is, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, that the greatest single hindrance in the path of relief for the unemployed has been and is Gifford Pinchot, Governor of Pennsylvania. The truth is that the greatest single hindrance in the path of corrective legislation, not only during the present session but others since the beginning of his term, is and has been Gifford Pinchot. He has taken a leaf from the story of the bad boy and smeared jam on the Legislature's fingers. He has dropped cookie crumbs in the legislative corner and behind his continual cry of "Wolf! Wolf" is the story of his own obstinacy, and his desire to advance his own personal political interests.

Not long ago a conference of leaders of the Republican Organization agreed unanimously that every penny of the $14,000,000 received from the Dorrance estate could be appropriated for unemployment relief. In conference with Governor Pinchot, later, it was suggested that $10,000,000 of that Dorrance money be devoted to relief.

But the Governor said no. He intimated that his budget officer was probably mistaken as to possible revenues for the coming biennium. It was his hope that we would give him authority to spend that $14,000,000 as he saw fit. But so insistent were his conferees that finally, and under heaviest pressure, he agreed to permit appropriation of $5,000,000 of Dorrance money. And that has been done. But today $9,000,000 remains inactive in the State Treasury, awaiting the Executive's designs during the biennium which begins June 1.

Mr. President, and Members of the Senate, since we came to Harrisburg in January we have been subjected to the chronic scoldings of Governor Pinchot. He is not willing to admit that a member of the Legislature has a single duty or responsibility to the people of Pennsylvania. We are answerable only to him. Not long ago in one of his Wednesday essays he went out of his way to denounce Adolf Hitler, German dictator. But the truth is that wrapped in the package which we know as Gifford Pinchot are all of the arrogance, self-will and danger of Adolf Hitler. He can be satisfied with nothing less than supreme power.

That was evident prior to the regular session of 1931, when he tried to move heaven and earth in his effort to name the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. It was true in the spring of 1930, when he sought the election of the lamented Van Brown as Chairman of the Republican State Committee. It was true several weeks ago, when by means known only to those who attended the seance, he forced the head of his Highway Department to sign a letter containing an abject reversal of testimony presented by the Highway Secretary before a legislative committee.

Mr. President, it was true again yesterday, when the Secretary to the Governor and a former Secretary to the Governor, who is now a Public Service Commissioner, moved among members of this body in an effort to line up sufficient votes to discharge the Committee on Executive Nominations from further consideration of the Governor's nomination of Clyde L. King as a member of the Public Service Commission.

I have all the sympathy in the world for Dr. King. It is common knowledge that he was practically forced by the Governor to accept the position he now holds. Because of his years of friendship for Gifford Pinchot he finally agreed to resign his place as Secretary of Revenue, and take the job he now fills so well.

All of us remember the Governor's fulsome words of praise when he appointed Dr. King. His eulogy was far more glowing even than that he accorded his former secretary, Mr. Stahlnecker. And if what the Governor said was true then, it is true now. Men of Dr. King's calibre do not change over night. They run true to form.

Undoubtedly, the Governor's present antagonism to Dr. King comes from the fact that Dr. King as Chairman of the Public Service Commission refuses to be bulldozed or bullied. Gifford Pinchot does not like that sort of man. And last night when he hung floral horseshoes on the shoulders of the Messrs. Woodruff, Gruenberg, Goodnough and Stahlnecker I wondered what he would say if, after confirmation by this body, they exhibited the independence of thought and deed that has distinguished Dr. King. I tell you, Mr. President, that the Governor has simply chosen Dr. King as a "whipping boy," and his denunciation, as the Chairman has said, is only the first gun in his newest factional fight.

It is plain to me that you and I, and all of us, are pawns in the Governor's various games. Fortunately the people of Pennsylvania are beginning to sense the truth. But we will not receive the blessings of the Governor until we permit him to tell us who are to be Public Service Commissioners, how much money is to be spent for relief, how many miles of rural highways are to be improved, how we must draw our beer and how much is to be charged for it. Not until we, the representatives of the people, abandon all independence and disavow every duty to our constituents will Simon Legree be good to us.

Mr. President, it is time to end this bickering and tomfoolery, the annoyance and uncertainty that have characterized this session. It is time that the waste of money cease—and by that I mean the prodigious daily cost of this session. It is time that members of Senate and House enact legislation they deem necessary, and go home. It is time to lay on the Governor's desk the bills we know are needed.

The Executive refuses to listen to us. He tells us that we must do as he says, or do nothing. I for one am in favor of winding up the affairs of this legislative session as we know the people of Pennsylvania demand, and not as we are directed to do by Gifford Pinchot.

I call your attention to Section 1 of Article 2 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania: "The legislative power of this Commonwealth shall be invested in a General Assembly which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives."

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, let us not abandon that power.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 5.38 A. M. until Wednesday morning, April 19, 1933, at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, April 18, 1933.

The House met at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rev. Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House offered the following prayer:

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, we stand before Thee in the light of this new day and hesitatingly reach out for the new opportunities which Thou dost present unto us. We thank Thee that in spite of our forgetfulness of Thee, and in spite of our self-seeking nature, Thou dost still look upon us with Thy patient smile of blessing.

We pray that Thou will lead us today to do Thy will more fully than we have ever done before. In the Master's holy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. McCreary, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

RULES COMMITTEE,

GROVER C. TALBOT,
A. J. WHITE HUTTON,
JOSEPH G. STEEDLE,
THOMAS B. WILSIN.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask if there has been any time allotted for motions to discharge committees from further consideration of bills?

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that no time has been allotted for the discharge of committees.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, up until last week under the order of resolutions there was no limit on the number of motions that could be made to discharge committees from further consideration of bills. Then beginning with the middle of last week we adopted a special order of business by which there was a limitation of that kind, first half an hour, and then to fifteen minutes, and now today we have no time allotted for such motions at all.

I might say that there are a number of bills which the sponsors, accredited members of this House, have a desire to have a vote on before this session finally adjourns. Last night almost a constitutional majority, to the number of ninety-nine, voted to discharge a committee from the further consideration of a bill. There are certain other bills on which, upon a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration, I am certain there will be a large vote, and on at least one, probably the committee will be discharged.

Under the order of business which is now proposed, we will have no chance whatever to make that motion. If this privilege is put off for another day or two, then, even if we are granted the opportunity to make these motions, it will be practically impossible to get the bills through the House and over to the Senate in time to be passed, if this session is to be adjourned at anything near the time that has been suggested.

I therefore, feel that we should have included in this resolution at least a period of fifteen minutes for the purpose of presenting motions to discharge committees from further consideration of bills, and for that reason I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on the adoption of the report of the rules committee, unless the rules committee is willing to amend it allowing us that much time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair finds itself in a rather peculiar position. The Speaker conferred on Thursday last with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, in an effort to save the time of the House, and to ascertain whether we could not cut down the time allotted for the motions to discharge committees. It was the understanding of the Speaker in that conference with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that he would report to the Speaker's office either last Thursday or prior to the meeting of the session last night, as to whether any time was needed in Monday night's session for the members to present motions to discharge committees. The Speaker has up to this time yet to hear from the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, but in spite of that fact the rules committee allotted fifteen minutes for the presentation of motions to discharge committees last night. It was the feeling of the rules committee, although the Chair does not speak for that body, that many members had bills on the calendar that they desired to put through to the Senate if they pass, and that they should be voted upon on their merits. It has been customary in past sessions when we reach the closing days of the session, that members' bills be dropped from the calendar. It was thought or rather it was the hope of the rules committee, that this would not be necessary during this session, but that every member's bill that had reached the floor would receive proper consideration.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is hardly necessary for me to add anything to what has already been said by the Speaker. The rules committee has considered this matter very carefully, and in view of the congested calendar and the desirability of clearing that calendar and getting the bills out, we deemed it the wise thing to do to eliminate the matter of motions for the discharge of committees. As has been stated before, fifteen minutes was allotted yesterday, and nothing was reported to us by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, concerning his desires in the matter, so that in the interest of celerity and to speed up matters of legislation, we felt that today the order should be dispensed with and that no time be alloted for the presenting of motions for the discharge of committees from further consideration of bills.

We asked, therefore, that the House adopt the order of the day as submitted by the rules committee.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last Thursday the Speaker asked me how many more bills we wanted to make motions on for the discharge of committees. I told him at that time that I did not know, which was correct. I might frankly and openly say now I do not know how many more bills there are, but I do know that there are several more. I told the Speaker that I was not in position to bind the members who have been fairly consistently voting for the discharge of committees, that I had not been selected as their spokesman, and I was in no position to give him the information which he requested, and which I think he is entitled to have. I was unable to give it to him, and therefore did not and could not give him that information. I understood that we would be allowed further time for that purpose, and that was the reason I am opposing this motion this morning.

There are still a number of bills that we desire to make motions on. I have not taken the floor to oppose the very strict limitation of the time for this purpose which the House has adopted. I realize that we all want to get rid of the calendar; I want to see every bill on this calendar dispensed of, and I believe that the merits of every bill should be determined by the members of the House and that no bill should be dropped from the calendar, and I hope that this House will not adjourn without having passed on every bill we have on the calendar, or without having passed on its merits. I also hope that you will give us a chance to make motions to discharge committees from further consideration of very important bills which we have thus far been unable to get out of committee, and which a very substantial group of this House desire to have a chance to vote upon. I therefore ask you to vote against the rule suggested by the rules committee here today.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Beech and were as follows:

B An association shall not without the prior written approval of the Department expend for the alteration repair or improvement of premises occupied but not owned by it an amount which together with all prior alterations repairs or improvements on the same premises exceeds five thousand dollars in the case of an association the assets of which are not more than five million dollars and ten thousand dollars in the case of an association the assets of which are more than five million dollars The cost of such alterations repairs or improvements shall be amortized during the term of such lease or occupancy

C The foregoing provisions of this section shall not affect any real property and building or buildings owned or leased and occupied or any furniture and fixtures owned and used by an association upon the effective date of this act for the transaction of its business but such association shall not add to such real property and shall not alter repair or improve leased premises if the cost of such additions alterations repairs or improvements together with any real property and building or buildings owned or any real property and building or buildings owned or furniture and fixtures owned and used or alterations repairs and improvements of leased premises aggregate more than the maximum amount authorized by this section

D An association may lease to any other association or to any other corporation or person for offices or for any other legitimate purpose premises which it owns or occupies for the transaction of its business

Section 806 Protection against Loss on Previous Loan or Investment The restrictions imposed by this act shall not be construed to prevent an association in order to protect itself from loss upon a loan or investment previously made from acquiring ownership of or otherwise taking and holding any kind of property or security whether real or personal Except as otherwise provided by this act any property so acquired unless of the character and nature by this act authorized to be purchased or held by such association shall be sold by it within five years but the Department may upon application of an association grant to it in writing the power to hold such property for a longer period

Section 807 Property Acquired before Effective Date of this Act This act shall not be construed to render unlawful the continued ownership or holding by an association of any loans investments or other real or personal property lawfully acquired prior to the effective date of this act However such loans and investments or such other real or personal property shall be computed in determining the power under this act of an association to grant any additional loans or make any additional investments of the same or different kinds

ment A Whenever it shall appear to the Department that

Section 808 Segregation of Dues upon Order of Depart- the affairs of an association are in such condition that the action hereinafter provided in this section is justified the Department may by written order issued in the manner provided by law direct that all payments of dues made on account of installment shares which have not been transferred and pledged to the association as security for loans shall be segregated from the other assets of the association and that the association shall not grant any further loans issue any new shares or make any payments on account of withdrawn or matured shares until such order is revoked in writing by the Department Such order of the Department shall be known as an order of segregation Such segregated moneys shall either be kept on deposit in a depository selected in the manner provided by this act or invested in the bonds designated by this act as authorized investments for associations The moneys so segregated and the bonds in which such moneys are invested shall be known as the segregated fund

If an association at any time after an order of segregation has become effective has no liability except to its shareholders arising from the ownership of shares it may with the written consent of the Department transfer to the segregated fund a portion or all of any cash which it may have on hand and bonds if any designated by this act as authorized investments Cash and bonds so transferred shall become a part of the segregated fund the same as though paid into the segregated fund by the shareholders whose shares are not pledged to the association as security for loans in proportion to the amounts paid in on account of their shares on the date that the order of segregation was issued Such segregated fund shall not be subject to any attachment issued on a judgment obtained by any creditor or shareholder of the association

During the period of segregation the segregated fund shall be available exclusively for the benefit of the shareholders who made such payments or for whose benefit the transfer of cash and bonds was made and may be withdrawn during such period of segregation upon thirty days' written notice

B All dues paid in during the period of segregation by shareholders whose shares are pledged to the association as security for loans shall be known as segregated credits and shall be applied as credits against the principal of any loans so secured which are repaid during the period of segregation

When any transfer of cash and bonds is made to the segregated fund the shareholders whose shares are pledged to the association as security for loans shall be entitled to segregated credits which shall bear the same relation to the amounts paid in by them on account of their shares prior to the effective date of the order of segregation as the amount of cash and bonds so transferred bears to the total amount paid in on account of shares prior to the effective date of the order of segregation by shareholders whose shares are not pledged as security for loans

If at any time during the period of segregation the segregated credits on shares pledged for a loan exceed the amount of the loan for which such shares are pledged all payments made by the borrower thereafter shall be segregated in the same manner as payments made by shareholders whose shares have not been pledged to the association as security for loans

C If the Secretary of Banking shall in the manner provided by law take possession of the business and property of an association while an order of segregation is in force or if a liquidating trustee or liquidating trustees shall pursuant to a plan of voluntary dissolution take possession of the business and property of such association while such order is in force the amount in the segregated fund shall be paid only to the shareholders whose payments were segregated or for whose benefit the transfer of cash and bonds was made and only to the extent that they can be paid from the segregated fund or from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds in which such segregated fund has been invested and the shareholders whose shares have been transferred and pledged as security for loans shall receive credit on account of the principal of their loans for the full amount of their segregated credits

D If an association while an order of segregation is in force shall enter into an agreement of merger or consolidation with another association or with other associations the shareholders whose shares have not been pledged to the association as security for loans shall receive credit in full for their interest in the segregated fund on account of the shares of the surviving or new association into which their shares are converted and the shareholders whose shares have been pledged to the association as security for loans shall receive in full for their segregated credits on account of the shares of the surviving or new association into which their shares are converted

E If while an order of segregation is in force the liability of an association to its shareholders shall be reduced by order of the court of common pleas pursuant to the provisions of this act the interest of the shareholders in the segregated fund and the segregated credits of shareholders shall not be reduced by the order of court but such shareholders shall receive credit in full on account of their shares for such interest in the segregated fund or for such segregated credits

F The Department may revoke an order of segregation whenever it shall appear that the condition of an association justifies such action In such event the association may exercise all the powers it could have exercised prior to the issuance of such power It shall treat all payments on account of shares or otherwise made by shareholders during the period of segregation and all segregated credits in the same manner as all other payments on account of shares whenever made

Section 809 Limitation on Loans and Investments An association shall not have the power to grant any loans or make any investments except such loans or invesments as are specifically authorized in this act

Section 810 Limitation of Power to Make Deposits An association shall not deposit any of the moneys received by it in any bank bank and trust company savings bank or private bank unless such institution is specifically approved by the board of directors of the association as a depository for the funds of the association

Section 811 Prohibition upon Accepting Deposits or Discounting Commercial Paper A An association shall not receive money on deposit but this provision shall not be construed to affect the right of an association to receive payments on account of shares payments on account of taxes or water rent on real property mortgaged to the association payments on account of interest on or principal of prior liens on such property or any other payments authorized by this act

B An association shall not purchase or discount any note bill of exchange draft or other commercial paper

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, think this bill is a very important one, and that it is not nderstood by the members of the House. I think the Chairan of the Committee on Game should describe the intent f this bill to the House.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, desire to make any explanation?

Mr. EDERER. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I do. This bill originally id two things. The first portion of the bill provided that the portsmen could keep meat indefinitely providing it had been dentified by the Game Commission as having been legally illed. All of our sportsmen's organizations were unanimously n favor of that portion of the bill.

The second portion of the bill provided that an automatic hotgun properly plugged would be a legal firearm to use on game in Pennsylvania. A number of our sportsmen's organizations were opposed to that provision and after certain amendments were placed into it, it eliminated the automatic gun feature of the bill altogether.

At the present time all the bill does is to permit meat to be kept for an indefinite period when it is properly marked by the Game Commission showing that it had been legally killed.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1878, Printer's No. 812, from page 74 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Long.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1878, entitled:

An Act providing for the registration of magazines and periodicals; prohibiting the sale, distribution and circulation of unregistered magazines or periodicals or magazines or periodicals containing indecent or immoral matter; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and otherwise providing for the administration of this act, and prescribing penalties.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is House Bill No. 1878, and as I understand the terms of this bill, any magazine sold in the State must be registered with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who must grant the certificate permitting its sale and distribution throughout the Commonwealth before it can lawfully be so distributed.

Such a measure, dealing with some magazines, would undoubtedly be beneficial. I don't hesitate a moment to say that we have a lot of literature on our news stands that is highly undesirable, but I seriously question the advisability of establishing a censorship. I consider it dangerous to permit a man or any group of men to set themselves up as judges as to what is good and what is bad for the people to read. It is entirely possible, in fact it has happened frequently in the past, when a measure such as this has been established, to suppress perfectly proper information to which the people are entitled. In the name of trying to shut off the distrbution of lewd and licentious literature, the circulation of proper birth control information has been stopped in this country for many, many years. That is only one instance as to how far a censorship of this kind may go once you get it started.

I consider it very dangerous and improper to put upon the statute books of a liberty-loving people a measure such as this is. I believe that our people are capable of defending themselves from being contaminated or ruined. I have no fear of being ruined by this literature, because I don't propose to read it, and I do not believe that many of our people will. Neither do I believe that the people who would read it will be saved by the adoption of a measure of this kind, and I therefore ask you, in order to prevent any improper censorship, which is almost certain to grow out of a measure of this kind, to vote no on this bill.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been submitted to the State Newspaper Association; it has been submitted to the labor people, who have prepared amendments which will be made in this bill in the Senate if the measure is passed here. I would like to read for you a few of the one hundred and ten letters that I have received in connection with this bill.

One of them is from the West Philadelphia District, Philadelphia District, Philadelphia Sunday School Council of Christian Education, West Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

April 9th, 1933.

Mr. Harold M. Long, 4500 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:

As president of The Women's Federation of Bible Classes of West Philadelphia, south of Market street and as a member of the County Executive Board, I wish to express to you our great appreciation for presenting to the Legislature, House Bill No. 1878, in reference to clean literature. Realizing the great impression unclean stories have made on the minds of young people especially we urge upon you the supreme necessity for the passage of this bill and trust God will direct you in your efforts to that end.

Yours in Christian Service,

(Mrs. John B.) MARY W. McKELVEY,
5719 Walton Avenue, West Philadelphia.

Another one is from the Federation Organized Adult Bible Classes of Philadelphia.

April 9, 1933.

Mr. Howard M. Long, 4500 Spruce St., West Phila., Pa.

Dear Sir:

At the last stated meeting of the Board of Directors of the County Federation of Organized Adult Women's Bible Classes, I was authorized to write. We wish to commend you on the stand you have taken on Bill 1878. We represent eight hundred Women's Classes.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs. F. J.) CARRIE B. DUTE,
Corresponding Secretary.

Now, this bill primarily was introduced to stop the distribution and sale of such papers as I have in my hand, and at the risk of shocking the sensibilities, not of our members but of some of our guests here tonight, I would like to read you some of the headlines:

"Society man romps nude making honks like a gander";

"Man accused by boys tells of his desires";

"Sex orgies with two orphans causes pinch of guardian";

"Faded old sin sister 52, says four school boys made her join odd love rites";

"Man caught in bed with his sister-in-law";

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill applies to Philadelphia County, and it has been amended, I think, to meet certain objections that had been presented to the original bill.

The bill merely provides that the nomination papers for magistrates must contain three thousand signatures. We have a situation in Philadelphia where we expect to elect either sixteen or seventeen magistrates. It is anticipated that there will be from one hundred and fifty to two hundred candidates. We have to use the voting machines in Philadelphia. These voting machines will take care of about nine candidates, so that we people from Philadelphia feel that the passage of this bill is absolutely necessary for us, in view of the very peculiar situation in that county and city.

There was some objection made by the Democratic side of the House, and the bill has been amended in accordance with the suggestion of Mr. Sarig, the Democratic leader. The objections to the original bill by certain members from the rural sections have been removed.

Therefore, I ask the members of this House, to help Philadelphia put over this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE POLLED

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the House that a quorum has not voted. The Sergeant-at-Arms will present himself at the bar of the House.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will permit none to enter but members and officials, and he will remove all visitors from the floor of the House.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will see that the doors are closed promptly.

The Chair lays before the House Rule 10:

When less than a quorum vote on any subject under the consideration of the House, it shall be the duty of the Speaker forthwith to order the doors of the House to be closed, and that the roll of members be called by the Clerk, and if it is ascertained that a quorum is present either by answering to their names or by their presence in the House—the yeas and nays shall again be ordered by the Speaker, and if any member present refuses to vote, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt, and unless purged, the Speaker shall order the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove said member or members without the bar of the House, and all privileges of membership shall be refused the person or persons so offending, until the contempt be duly purged.

The Chair having been informed by the recording clerk that there was less than a quorum voting on the bill, the clerk will now call the roll, and the members will answer "present" to their names.
